

Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement

Based near Bristol, Weaver Demolition provide demolition services to the Southwest of England and Wales.

We are committed to the highest level of ethical standards and ensure there are no instances of modern slavery or human trafficking in our supply chains or in any part of our business.

We fully support the government's objectives to eradicate modern slavery and human trafficking and work with our subcontractors to:

- Ensure employment is not forced, bonded or non-voluntary prison labour
- Offer working hours that are not excessive and are compliant with national laws or industry standards
- Have appropriate disciplinary, grievance and appeal procedures in place
- Have a confidential whistle-blowing process in place where all reported instances are investigated thoroughly
- Ensure appropriate health and safety measures are in place to protect the workforce and the wider public
- Offer wages and benefits at least in line with industry standards or national minimums.

All our employees have a written contract of employment and their right to work is established prior to their employment commencing.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'M. J. Weaver', is written in a cursive style.

M J Weaver

Managing Director

Weaver Demolition Ltd

Date: 01/02/2024